Janson D. McNair, Director

Publicly Disclosed Information:

OPI Case Number 21-375

Date: 4/7/2021

ALLEGATIONS:

Former Mayor of a local town complained that a current county employee has also been appointed to the town's board of trustees, which they claim is a conflict of interest.

FINDINGS:

OPI found that neither the county code of ethics, nor NY Consolidated laws preclude employee from holding elective office, so long as their position does not interfere with their county employment or would have decision making or buying recommendation power regarding county contracts. Referred caller to town, which may have a separate code of ethics.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

None
