Publicly Disclosed Information:

OPI Case Number 23-128

Date: 12/21/2023

ALLEGATIONS:

Anonymous complainant states that a County employee abused County working time policy by picking up items privately donated to their department. A supervisor then determined that the donated items were not usable. The employee then offered the donated items to their co-workers, which complainant states is an abuse of County property.

FINDINGS:

Unfounded. The employee was tasked with picking up the donated items, which made the employee eligible for regular pay. Further, once the supervisor determined the items donated were not suitable for use by the County, they became "waste" and would no longer qualify as property of value. Management was contacted and advised that they may want to speak to the employee about giving away unsuitable waste.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

None
